

Soham Murders

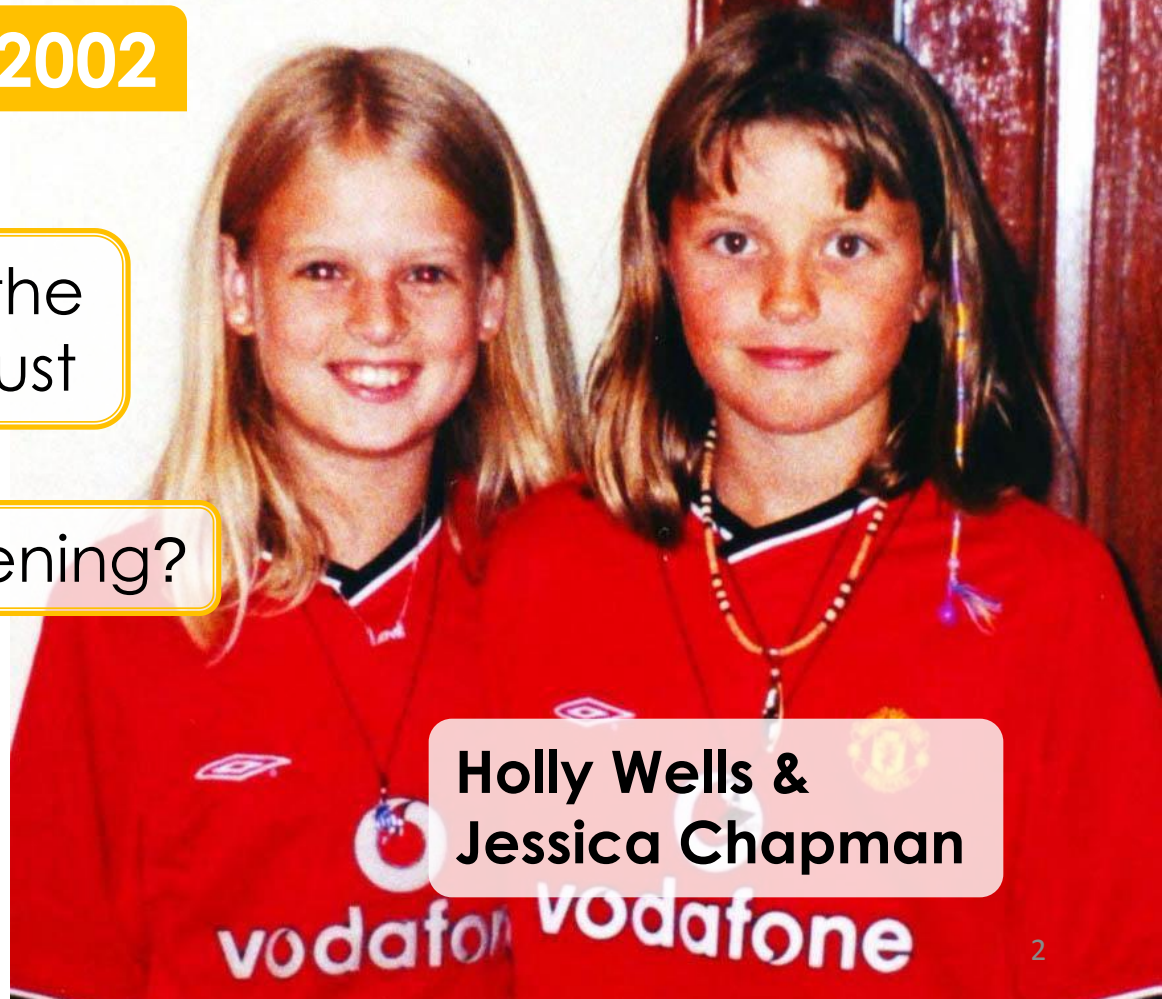

Soham, August 2002

Disappeared on the evening of 4 August

Died that evening?

Bodies dumped 30 miles away

Holly Wells &
Jessica Chapman

Ian Huntley

Assisted with the search

Talked to police and journalists

Cleaned his house and car

Changed the tires of his car

Ian Huntley

Ian Huntley

Convicted of murders

Sentenced to life in prison

How was he convicted?

DNA

Fingerprints

Fibre Analysis

Poison

Blood

4 August 2002

Evening

The girls went to buy sweets

Failed to return home

DNA

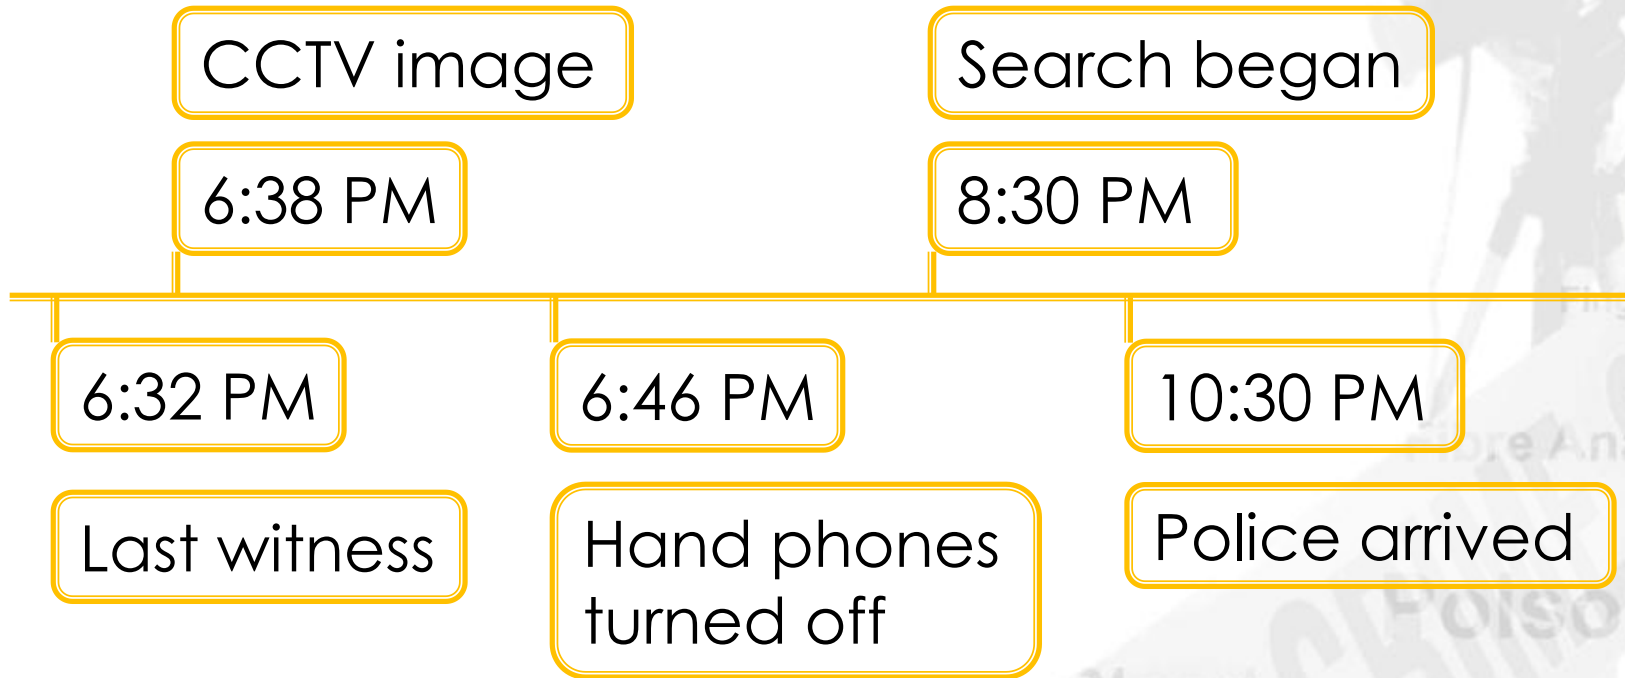

Fingerprints

Fibre Analysis

Poison

Blood

4 August 2002

17 August 2002

Bodies found at Lakenheath

30 minutes drive away

DNA

Fingerprints

Fibre Analysis

Poison

Blood

17 August 2002

Bodies partially burned

Time of death?

Botanist

About 13 days

Approximate time of death

Approximate time of dumping

Evidence

End of a dirt road

Tire impression on the road

Soil transferred to vehicle?

Pollen on the vehicle?

Evidence

Car

Washed and vacuumed car, changed new tires

5 August 2002

Removing traces of evidence?

Evidence

1 Soil on his car

2 Chalk, brick dust and concrete from road

3 Pollen from area where bodies were dumped

Evidence

4 Partially burned clothes found in school building

Huntley's hairs

Fibres from Huntley's carpet

Huntley's fingerprint on the bin bag

Huntley had keys to the building

Evidence

5 Hand phones

Link Huntley and the girls

Time

Calls or texts

Signal transmitted to a receiver on a mast

Evidence

Soham

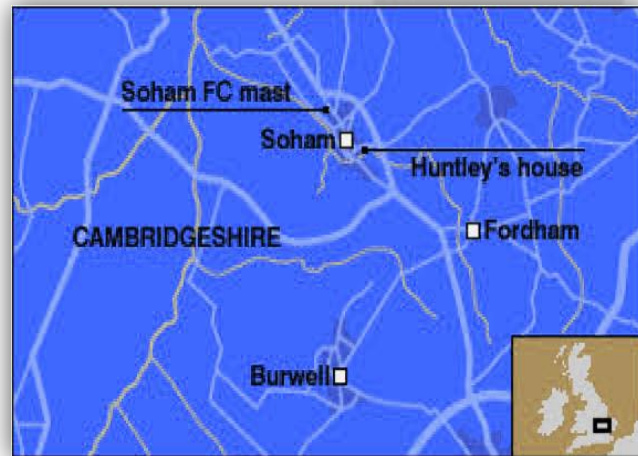

Mast at a football club

Huntley's part of the village

Mast at Burwell

Masts

Evidence

Turning off hand phones

Signal sent

Disengagement signal from the girls' phones

Burwell mast, 6:46 PM

Huntley's part of the village

Evidence

Hand phones

Soil & pollen

Clothes

Fingerprint

Evidence

"It left him with no alternative but to fall back on a final story which was no more than a tissue of lies to save his own skin."

Ian Huntley

Life imprisonment