Hello, for some reason, a lot of the brushes just show triangles and ovals, any idea why?

I have the same problem. I supposed it's just the brushtips that needed to be changed, but I don't know which one are used for each brush...

Thank you very much for creating and sharing this. To give more tools to enhance the creativity is something precious. I'm new here, and I did not know that here there are also resources like brushes and materials for digital illustration, this is awesome. I love nature, and I love to be drawing. I will enjoy a lot these brushes, I will credit you when I use them. All the best for this 2021
